CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

Fifty Arkansas Christian Endeavorers, en route to New Orleans, to attend the All-South Christian Endeavor convention, July 8-11, will be entertained by the Memphis Christian Endeavor union Wednesday night at the Linden Avenue Caristian church.

The Arkansas delegates will begin arriving at 7:15 p.m., on a special car over the Rock Island railroad, with 21 Endeavorers from Little Rock and Hot Springs. Delegations from other sections of Arkansas will arrive a little later on other trains.

Memphis Endeavorers will meet the trains and conduct the visitors to the Linden Avenue church, where a supper will be served.

A rally of all the local Endeavor societies will be held at 8:30 p.m. The program will be Informal. The visitors will have about six hours in Memphis before they leave over the Illinois Central railroad for New Orleans.

Warren Newsum, president of the Memphis Christian Endeavor union, will accompany the Arkansas party to New Orleans to attend the convention.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS HAS

COAL SHORTAGE CRISIS CEYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss., July 6.
(Spl.)—Another coal shortage is insminent here both for industrial purposes and domestic purposes. The price of coal for industrial purposes has reached a point where it is almost prohibitive to the town operating the light and water plant costing something like $10 per ton delivered with advices from dealers that no orders for future deliveries can be booked.

Local dealers are unable to promise coal for domestic purposes and very few secopies of far have succeeded in getting in any coal at all for the winter. The water and light plant is trying to negotiate with nearly saw mills for sufficient refuse staff to run the plant intil conditions are better.

Presented by none other than Ben Turpin, Louise Fazenda, Marie Prevost, Billy Armstrong, John Henry, Jr., "Teddy," "Pepper" and others of Sennett fame.

"Down On the Farm" is a five-reel comedy, the fun king's latest and best. It is the indireet result of the visit of the Sennett concedians to the Mack Sennett farm near Los Angeles, where their ignorance and anties in a natural way proved too good to pass by. Hence the comedy production into which a plot has been built for laughing purposes only.
